1 Program

LZU International Summer Program is designed to give international students an introduction to Chinese history, culture and scenic landscape of Northwest China. It includes lectures in the fields of Chinese Language, Culture and Society, as well as several field trips. Take opportunities to learn the language and culture through the summer program.

2 How to apply (Application Deadline April 15, 2015)

The application documents should be sent via email to Ms. Han Yanmei at incoming@lzu.edu.cn. Please note that the application materials have to be sent through the corresponding office or person of your university.

3 Field Trip

Jiayu Pass and Dunhuang (3 days program)

Jiayu Pass is the first pass at the west end of the Great Wall of China, and Mogao Grottoes is the best known Chinese Buddhist Grottoes. You will get the chance to experience the two historic treasures which were classified as World Heritage by UNESO.

Xiahe (2 days program)

Xiahe is a small, lively town situated in a valley of the Ganan Tibetan Autonomous Prefecture. The town centers upon the famous Labrang Monastery. The population here is diverse with Tibetan, Han, and Hui (Muslim), making this a good place to observe people of different ethnic groups in Northwest China.

Your personal guide to LZU and Chinese culture: your buddy will contact you via e-mail prior to your departure for China.

Gansu province preserves the most colorful and profound Chinese culture and traditions. Situated along the Silk Road, Gansu was an economically important province and a cultural transmission path in ancient China. The historic sites in Gansu, such as the Mogao Grottoes, the Jiayuguan Pass of the Great Wall, the Maiji Shan Caves, attract hundreds of thousands of visitors around the world every year.

Founded in 1909, Lanzhou University is one of China's oldest institutions of higher learning. Since then, it has always been recognized as one of northwestern China's premier universities.

Lanzhou University is included amongst the top 500 best global universities (U.S. News & World Reports Ranking, 2014).

Lanzhou University is ranked 17th among top research institutes in mainland China (Nature, Dec. 17, 2014)
