Messages from the Faculty

“ The International Summer School brings together students from many of the most prestigious seats of higher learning in the world, and benefits enormously from the rich diversity of cultures that are present in the classrooms. Peking University has had a historical role in the rise of China, and having it as the site for studying Chinese language and culture is ideal.

-Prof. Roger Ames, Department of Philosophy, University

Testimonials from Past Students

“ The professor has a breadth of knowledge about the topic, and he is very engaging and extremely receptive to feedback in the course.

- Student from Yale University

“ I think the best part of the course is the balance of the lecture, presentation and discussion. It is perfectly satisfying.

of Hawaii

“ I recommend the PKUSSI to you for the following reasons: 1. to find out why Peking University is so well-known and how internationalized it is; 2. to be exposed to different perspectives in academic fields of your interest; 3. to closely contact PKU faculty and students; 4. to see the real China and the local residents speaking authentic Chinese; 5. last but not the least, to taste Chinese food and have fun with a legitimate excuse.

- Prof. GONG Wenxiang, School of Communication, Peking University

“ The PKUSSI will give you an advantageous starting point to understand China and the world. Whether you are to pursue further degree, or to develop a career in China, you will find the experience very rewarding.

- Assoc. Prof. QIN Xuezheng, School of Economics, Peking University

- Student from University of Tokyo

“ Classes in PKU were lively and interesting. Not only do we get to interact and hear the thoughts of other international students, we are also not bogged down by pen and paper examinations!

- Student from National University of Singapore

“ In this Peking University Summer School, I had the best summer of my life. I met the most amazingly accepting people, who cared for me and I formed strong bonds with them.

- Student from University of California, Berkeley

“ Throughout my travels in China, I have always heard Chinese people talk with great respect and admiration for PKU. To be able to tell my friends that I have studied for a period at Peking University is something I am very proud of, and I would certainly hope to return to complete further study or research in the future.

- Student from Australian National University
