Graduate School of Information Sciences
2018 Three-Year Doctoral Program Admission Guidelines
(April 2018 Advancement and Transfer Admissions)

Examination dates

Schedule I (Group 1, 5, 6, 7) : 3 February -4 February 2018

Schedule II (Group 2, 3, 4) : 28 February - 2 March 2018

November 2017

The Graduate School of Information Sciences (GSIS) consists of four departments: Computer and Mathematical Sciences, System Information Sciences, Human-Social Information Sciences and Applied Information Sciences.

GSIS aims not only to conduct cutting-edge education and research within these various academic disciplines, but also to advance wide-ranging interdisciplinary research. Students can therefore opt to engage in areas other than their original speciality. We welcome applications from ambitious individuals aspiring to create “Information Science” for the new era.’

Admission Policy

To foster individuals who can contribute to GSIS’s goal of creating “New Information Science,” we promote the acceptance of students who aim to further develop the fruits GSIS has reaped so far, students who aspire to actively pursue research across a range of disciplines, students hoping to broaden their research area, and overseas students and mature students from diverse backgrounds.

Assistance Program for Doctoral Students

As of FY2006, GSIS has been operating an assistance program for doctoral students with the aim of providing economic support and a suitable learning environment for graduate students with a high level of specialization.

<For details, please contact GSIS Educational Affairs Section [Kyoumu Kakari].>

1. Recruiting departments and selection category

Department	Number of students admitted	Additional Information
Computer and Mathematical Sciences	11	The figures shown in the left column (advancing (Note 1) / transferring students to be admitted) include the following quota; *transfer-admission selection for mature students (Note 2): 4 in each department *transfer-admission selection for overseas students, etc. (note 3): total of 7 in all the department.
System Information Sciences	11
Human-Social Information Sciences	10
Applied Information Sciences	10
Total	42

Note 1: Applicants who have completed the two-year GSIS program (master degree program) or a professional degree program and are advancing to the three-year doctoral course.

Note 2: The status of mature students is granted to those who have worked full time for more than 2 years in principle (see Note 4 below). In case that applicants have less than 2 years of work experience, those who will work full time after enrolment and meet one of the qualifications in “2. Applicants requirements” are subject to this selection (see p.6-7).

Note 3: Those eligible to apply for transfer-admission selection for overseas students, etc. are current overseas students or the students who have received education in higher educational institutions abroad, and who at the same time meet one of the requirements described in “2. Application requirements” (hereinafter referred to as “overseas students, etc.”).

Note 4: “Mature students are those that have experience as technically skilled workers, teachers, researchers, etc. in public office, educational institutions and private companies, in principle. An individual can be classified as a mature student even without such previous experience. For individual cases, contact theGSIS Educational Affairs Office.

Note 5: All those wishing to apply as transfer students should consult beforehand with GSIS Education Affairs Section and with their prospective supervisor to confirm their research plans after transfer admission.

2. Application requirements

- 1) Only those students who are expected to complete GSIS two-year program (master degree program) or a professional degree program in March 2018 may apply as advancing students.
- 2) In order to apply as a transfer student, applicants must satisfy one of the following prerequisites:
 - (1) Those persons who have a master’s degree or a professional degree (including those who are expected to be awarded such a degree by March 2018).
 - (2) Those persons who have acquired a degree equivalent to a master’s degree or a professional degree (including those who are expected to be awarded such a degree by March 2018) at a graduate school in another country.
 - (3) Those persons who have completed, while in Japan, a course of study through a correspondence course provided by a foreign school and have been awarded a degree equivalent to a master’s degree or a professional degree (including those who are expected to acquire such a degree by March 2018).
 - (4) Those persons who have completed a master’s course in an educational institution in Japan, which is (i) recognized under the education system of a foreign country as operating a graduate school program and (ii) otherwise designated by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT Minister) of Japan, and have been awarded a degree equivalent to a master’s degree or a professional degree (including those who are expected to acquire such a degree by March 2018).
 - (5) Those who have completed programs in United Nations University and who have been awarded a degree comparable to a Master’s (including those who are planning to finish the enrolled program by March 2018.)
 - (6) Those who have completed programs in United Nations University (founded based on the United Nations General Assembly resolution on Dec. 11 1972, which was prescribed in paragraph 2, Article 1 of a special legislation involved with an agreement on headquarters of United Nations University between United Nations and Japan), and who have received a degree comparable to a Master’s (including those who are planning to finish the enrolled program by March 2018.)
 - (7) Those persons designated by the MEXT Minister (Public Notice of the Ministry of Education No.118 of 1989).

- (i) University graduates who have engaged in research for two or more years at universities or research institutes, etc., and who are expected by GSIS on the basis of research results, etc., to have attained a level of scholastic achievement equivalent to or greater than those with master's or professional degrees.
 - (ii) Those who have completed 16 years of education in a foreign country or who have completed, while in Japan, a study program equivalent to 16 years of education in a foreign country through a correspondence course provided by a school in that country, and have engaged in research for two or more years at universities or research institutes, etc., and who are expected by GSIS on the basis of research results, etc., to have attained a level of scholastic achievement equivalent to or greater than those with master's or professional degrees.
- (8) Other students who, on the basis of an individual screening, are deemed by GSIS to have a level of scholastic attainment equivalent to or above those with master's or professional degrees, and who will be at least 24 years old by March 2018.

Note 6: As those wishing to apply under (7) or (8) above will be subject to prior documentation screening, they should consult beforehand with GSIS Educational Affairs Section and their prospective supervisor, submitting the documentation stipulated by GSIS by 15 December 2017.

3. Application deadlines

Applications must be received between 4 - 10 January 2018. The reception is open from 9:00AM to 4.30PM. Where posted applications arrive later than 11 January, only those postmarked up to 10 January will be accepted.

5. Selection method

1) Advancing students from GSIS

Selection will be based upon results from the two-year master's program and an individual assessment, etc.

2) General transfer-admission applicants, advancing students from other graduate schools of Tohoku University and applicants for transfer-admission selection for overseas students, etc.

Selection will in principle be based on a combination of written examinations, an oral examination, academic transcript and other submitted documents.

Applicants should refer to "the list of laboratories" on pp.19-22 or GSIS website (<http://www.is.tohoku.ac.jp/jp/laboratory/>) to select the laboratory (area) to which they wish to be assigned and sit the written and oral examinations for the specialized subject group specified by that laboratory (in that area).

Subject group codes, laboratory codes and departments are shown in Table 1.

The content of examinations for each specialized subject group is shown on pp.9-12(Schedule I) and pp.14-17(Schedule II).

Where the applicant is advancing from another graduate school at Tohoku University and their prospective supervisor will be one of the persons examining their thesis, their master's program results may be sufficient to exempt them from the written examinations.

Specialized subject group		Laboratory codes	Department
Group code	Name
1	Mathematics	A01-1, A01-2, A02-1, A02-2, A03, A04	Computer and Mathematical Sciences
		B01-1, B01-2, B02-1, B02-2, B02-3, B03	System Information Sciences
2	Information and Biosystems	A05, A07, A08, A09, A10, A11, A13, A14, A16, A17	Computer and Mathematical Sciences
		B04, B05, B06, B07, B08, B11, B12, B13-1, B13-2, B15	System Information Sciences
		D01, D02, D04, D05, D07, D08, D10, D11, D12, D13	Applied Information Sciences
3	Machine and Intelligence	A06-1, A06-2, A12, A15-1, A15-2, A15-3	Computer and Mathematical Sciences
		B09, B10-1, B10-2, B14	System Information Sciences
		D03-1, D03-2, D03-3, D09	Applied Information Sciences
4	Civil Engineering	C11-1, C11-2, C12-1, C12-2, C13-1, C13-2	Human-Social Information Sciences
5	Languages and Media	C01, C06, C14, C15	Human-Social Information Sciences
6	Psychology and Philosophy	C02, C03, C04, C05, C16	Human-Social Information Sciences
		D06	Applied Information Sciences
7	Social Sciences	C07, C08, C09, C10	Human-Social Information Sciences

* Aside from the above, the following examination methods can also be chosen.

Special method: In place of the above written and oral examinations, the applicant can produce a paper or short essay concerning their background, undergo an oral examination, and sit a foreign language examination (English). (According to the outcome of the prior documentation screening, examination by such methods may not be permitted.)

Those wishing to be examined using the above method must consult with GSIS Educational Affairs Section and their prospective supervisor to confirm the specific examination method by 15 December, 2017.

(1) Schedule for screening examinations.

Examinations will be held by specialized subject group over 3 February - 4 February 2018(Schedule I) or 28 February - 2 March 2018 according to the schedule on pp.9-12(Schedule I) or pp.14-17(Schedule II).

(2) Place and time of examination

The details including the examination venue will be notified along with the examination admission card (to be sent). As for the time and the date of the examinations, refer to“Examination schedule and examination content for each specialized subject group.” (pp.9-12[Schedule I] or pp.14-17[Schedule II])

3) Mature students

Those applying for admission as mature students should in principle have been employed for two or more years as technicians, teachers or researchers in public office, schools or companies, etc. In case that applicants have less than 2 years of work experience, only those who have a status as a researcher, teacher or technician after being transferred are subject to this selection. The aim is for mature students to exploit their workplace experience in their learning and research, refresh and advance their knowledge and skills, or to acquire knowledge and skills in new areas, advancing their creative abilities.

Screening will entail in principle a holistic assessment of the applicant's basic academic ability and work experience and research content as a working member of society based on a short essay, oral examination and documentation screening. Emphasis will also be placed on the relationship between the research area in which the candidate wishes to major and their work and research experience to date.

The examination dates, start times and the examination content for the various specialized subject groups can be found on pp.13(Schedule I) or pp.18(Schedule II). Examination venues will be the same as for (2) General transfer-admission applicants, advancing students from other graduate schools of Tohoku University and applicants for transfer-admission selection for overseas students, etc. noted above.

6. Announcement of successful applicants

The examination code numbers of successful applicants will be listed on GSIS website around 5 p.m. on 9 February 2018(Schedule I) or 9 March 2018(Schedule II) (<http://www.is.tohoku.ac.jp/>). Applicants will also be notified of results placed in the envelope exclusively used for official communication by mail.

7. Application for Long-Term Study System

GSIS can, based on the results of a review, give permission for a student to complete their study program(Note 10) systematically over a period of more than three years, the standard completion period, in response to circumstances such as the student's having a job (Note 9) Students to whom this system is applied are called "long-term students."

GSIS will engage in consultation in relation to this system at any point in time. Details of application methods will be contained in the documentation on advancement and transfer procedures that is sent out following the announcement of successful applicants.

Note 9: Students eligible for the long-term student system are: (i) full-time employees at companies, etc., or those who are self-employed; (ii) those needing time away for childbirth, childcare or nursing care, etc.; and (iii) other persons deemed eligible by GSIS.

Note 10: The term of study cannot extend past six years. However, students can request that the permitted term of study be shortened. In principle, there will be no special curriculum set for long-term students.

8. Advancement and transfer-admission procedures

Instructions concerning the procedures and paperwork for entering the program will be sent along with the admission notification, sometime around the end of March 2018.

9. Costs

(1) Advancing students

Tuition fee (Semester 2) 267,900 yen (subject to change)
(Annual fee: 535,800 yen) (subject to change)

(2) Transfer students

Entrance fee 282,000 yen (subject to change)
Tuition fee (Semester 2) 267,900 yen (subject to change)
(Annual fee: 535,800 yen) (subject to change)

(For both (1) and (2))

Note 11: Tuition fees while enrolled at Tohoku University should be paid to the university through an automatic debit from a bank account held at a designated bank. The above fees are provisional, and where tuition fees are revised during your period of study, the new tuition fee will apply as of the time of revision.

Note 12: Information on exemptions from entrance and/or tuition fees or permission for delayed fee payment will be provided in the documentation on advancement or transfer-admission procedures, etc., sent out after the announcement of the examination results.

10. Notes

- (1) Application documents and the examination fee will not be returned.
- (2) Anyone who files a false declaration in the application documents, the admission may be canceled even after admission.
- (3) If you have not received an examination admission card by 10 days before the entrance examination, please contact GSIS Educational Affairs Section.
- (4) Consultation is available for those applicants with examination or study needs. Please contact GSIS Educational Affairs Section in this regard by 15 December 2017.
- (5) When requesting application documentation by mail, please enclose a self-addressed envelope (No. 2 size, or approximately 34 cm x 24cm) on which your name, address and postal code are clearly written and a 205 yen stamp attached. If you require a brochure explaining details of the school's program, clearly write your request in red ink on a request envelope and enclose a self-addressed envelope (same size as above) with a 380 yen stamp attached.

(6) Handling of personal information

- (i) Personal information gathered in the course of admission screening will be used solely for the purposes of conducting admission screening, admission procedures, providing support after admission (scholarships, tuition fee exemptions, health management, etc.), education (educational guidance, etc.), and administrative activities such as collecting tuition fees.
- (ii) Personal information gathered in the course of admission screening will be handled strictly in compliance with “the Act on the Protection of Personal Information Held by Independent Administrative Agencies, etc.” and other laws and regulations, as well as “Tohoku University Regulations on the Protection of Personal Information,” and will not be disclosed or released to third parties without the consent of the person concerned.
- (iii) It is deemed that those applying to Tohoku University Graduate School of Information Sciences have consented to the above provisions.

	Specialized subjects 3 February 10:00-13:00 Select two out of 12 questions from these areas: psychology (sensation and perception, cognition, learning and memory, personality, psychometrics) and philosophy (history of philosophy). If you wish to be assigned to either of the following labs (cognitive informatics, human learning, memory or cognitive psychology and communication psychology), you will be required to produce a short essay (topic to be indicated at the examination venue).
Oral examination	3 or 4 February Applicants will be notified as to the exact date and start time separately. Applicants must speak for approximately 20 minutes on the education they received at their former graduate school and their master's thesis (including theses under production). (PC projectors can be used.) On the day of the examination, bring five copies of materials related to your presentation (presentation outline, diagrams, etc.; A4 size). Overseas students from Tohoku University do not need to give a presentation, but they will be asked about their master's thesis (including those under production) and their research goals following transfer, etc.

Three-Year Doctoral Program: Transfer-admission selection for mature students

Group 1 Mathematics
Oral examination	4 February Applicants will be notified of the exact start time separately. Applicants must speak for approximately 20 minutes on their main area of mathematical research either at their workplace or on a personal basis. (PC projectors can be used.) An examination will confirm the applicant's basic academic skills required for the research field in which he or she wishes to enroll, and understanding of related matters. Bring copies of a summary of the presentation, five in Japanese and five in English, printed on A4 size paper. In addition, bring five copies of a summary of what you plan to study, printed A4 size in Japanese. If the applicant is non-Japanese, he or she may submit both summaries in English only.

Group 5 Languages and Media
Oral examination	3 or 4 February Applicants will be notified as to the exact date and start time separately. Applicants will be notified as to the time of the examination separately. Applicants must speak for approximately 30 minutes on their research or work at their workplace and future research project. (PC projectors can be used.) On the day of the examination, bring five copies of materials related to your presentation (presentation outline, diagrams, etc.; A4 size).

Group 6 Psychology and Philosophy
Short essay	3 February 10:00-11:30 Theme to be indicated on the day of the examination.
Oral examination	3 or 4 February Applicants will be notified as to the exact date and start time separately. Applicants must speak for approximately 20 minutes on their research or work at their workplace and their research plans after admission. (PC projectors can be used.)
